

1917
MARCH 17

THE QUEENSLANDER FOR MARCH 17, 1917—PAGE 112

1917
MARCH 17

The Queenslander Pictorial.

The Roper River Mission, Northern Territory.

Some of the first houses of the Mission.

A glimpse of the Mission.

The 'Store'.

A Missionary's bedroom.

Mission, Blacks and Half Castles.

The Speller (Mrs M.E. Warren), Miss Warren, Baby Warren, and Miss Warren (Miss Warren in the front white baby dress and the Speller).

Black, white and half-breed babies.

Missing children in their smart dresses of white with red facings.

In school

Little half-breed girl making bread (and excellent bread it was too).

"Teacher Time"

The Juvenile Section of the
Roper River Mission
see "Ketchikan"

STUDENTS OF THE NORTH QUEENSLAND STATE SCHOOL, WHO PASSED THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS IN TERNOWA.
 Front row: E. Robinson, E. Williams, Edward Cox, M. Partridge, L. Smith, Mr. R. Robinson, Joseph, L. Gifford, R. Roberts. Back row: E. Barry, J. Robinson, J. Brown. —Magnum photo.

STUDENTS OF EAST QUEENSLAND STATE SCHOOL, WHO PASSED THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.
 Front row: L. Longwood, T. Robinson, D. Adams. Second row: E. Barry, Edward Cox, E. Williams, Joseph, L. Smith, Mr. R. Robinson, J. Brown. Back row: E. Barry, D. Adams, E. Williams, E. Robinson, E. Barry, D. Adams. —Magnum photo.

CARRIED BY THE WHEEL.

The French soldier Flaherty's machine, brought down a German machine by the middle of some loaded wire. The enemy then, driven as it was back, was not actually lost, and the able party after the capture, looking to make off to a place behind the French line.

GENERAL RADER.

The French commander who recently captured Bismarck and Lauenburg from the Germans.

TRICKY OR SLY.

The German horse soldier, who is a very clever fellow.

BOY AND GIRL.

Divorced children in Germany, playing.

The Seal Pond

"Hippo" in his cave

The Two-humped Canal

Part of the Zoo on the Harbour

SYDNEY'S
NEW WONDER
ZOO,
TARONGA PARK.

Photos by the Sydney
Star's Staff

The Lion Takes a Rest

The Kangaroo Family

The Elephant's Palace

The Tiger in his den above.
(The animals of the Gossellian family are divided from the visitors by a deep moat.)

More Scenes in New Britain.
(Part of a series of pictures.)

The Great Mt. Mafu and surrounding

On the North Coast of New Britain

Copra drying, shade of Kigman

The sea front at Kigman

A Rest Road